This means that every local authority should provide a service that is free, easy to access and confidential and that can help children, parents and young people take part in decisions that affect their lives.

The Local Offer must include information about the sources of information, advice and support for parents, children and young people and how this is resourced.

In Herefordshire and Worcestershire this service is provided by SEND Information, Advice and Support Service (SENDIASS)

What do we mean when we say we are impartial?

The SEND Code of Practice says:

authority and Clinical Commissioning Groups
