An appeal
be proven:

unless 1 of the 3 clearly defined grounds set out below can

- A) The child would have been offered a place if the admission's policy (which is published on the school website) had been properly implemented; or
- B) The child would have been offered a place if the arrangements had not been contrary to mandatory provisions in the School Admissions Code and the SSFA 1998; and/or
- C) The decision to refuse admission was not one which a *reasonable admission authority would have made in the circumstances of the case. *i.e. it was 'beyond the range of responses open to a reasonable decision maker' or 'a decision which is so outrageous in its defiance of logic or of accepted moral standards that no sensible person who had applied his mind to the question could have arrived at
