

Behaviour as communication

Pinching, pushing, biting and kicking behavior can communicate the following:

- I don't know how to tell you how I am feeling
- I don't know how to play
- I want what you've got
- I want someone to notice me
- I don't like you or what you're doing

