6. Reviews should be planned at the outset, and attended by representatives of both schools, the student, parents/carers and any others involved. It is good practice for a member of the receiving host school staff to meet the child/young person regularly to review their progress. This gives the child/young person the chance to identify what has gone well and how to replicate success. The views

Views of the Child/Young Person and their family

Being reintegrated back into a mainstream school provides you with an opportunity for a fresh start, learning from the mistakes that have happened in the past. This application provides your new school with an understanding of you and what you want to achieve in the future so that you can make the best possible start. The views of the child or young person and their family should be gathered at each review meeting.
