

Thank you for your acknowledgement.

beautiful baby girl who is now 6 weeks old.

school and play down the park like me and my sister were able to do when we were brought up i

Unfortunately we spent the day in hospital yesterday as my daughter has contracted a dust for 10 years in her tiny little lungs. silica

These children are our future and the thought that this quarry could go ahead in such an particular one due to our current circumstances.

If you could please pass this onto the inspector also, it would be greatly appreciated.

Many thanks.
