

My name is Joanna McNeill I am 38 years old a mother of 2 girls, and I am living with silicosis. I worked in administration at a quarry beginning in 2013, stationed about 90 meters from the crushing plant. During those years, I typically worked 450 hours a week and eventually came back to work in 2019. During a routine medical check that