

Thank you for your reply. There were 2 issues I wanted to add. Firstly in regard to the point needing all the farmland we can get is, perhaps, even more necessary now with Trump heading for the White House. Prices here have recently increased due to wars in Ukraine & the Middle East & will do so again with the 'America first' policy.